

providers, libraries, museums and community organizations are working together to provide their publics new ways to access cultural resources. Local events, events schedules, news and more will soon be available as part of DALNET's information hub in Michigan: an integrated system providing one-stop access to multiple institutions' resources. To join us at breakfast where we will demonstrate various ways and discuss the ways in which your organization can participate. If you are unable to attend, please pass this invitation to a colleague. Don't miss an opportunity to have your organization represented at this historical meeting.
