

College Academic Master Plan Committee Mission/Charge Rewrite

Presented to the College Academic Senate
October 27, 2011

CURRENT

Mission

The College Academic Master Plan Committee (CAMP) develops and oversees the college academic master planning process. The College Academic Master Plan drives curriculum development, guides resource allocation, provides a framework for all campus academic master planning and facilitates our institutional evaluation process.

PROPOSED

Mission

The College Academic Master Plan Committee oversees the institution's academic planning process, both by participating in the development of college and campus level academic planning and by encouraging and monitoring the implementation of academic plans. Academic planning drives curriculum development, guides resource allocation, and facilitates institutional evaluation.
