

PARTICIPATION ... INVOLVEMENT...

two words that quickly become a reality to the MCC student. MCC, like every college, can offer you the formal learning experiences of the classroom, but MCC suddenly becomes special with the learning experiences gained outside the classroom. An abundance of activity combined with a small student body gives everyone, both the experienced and the unexperienced, a chance to participate and to learn by doing. If you want to participate, not merely watch, MCC is your opportunity.

PARTICIPATION!!

INVOLVEMENT!!

ALL-SCHOOL ACTIVITIES. Larger schools by necessity conduct most events on a social club organization basis. Not so at MCC! Whether it's a banquet or a giant scavenger hunt, everyone can get caught up in the anticipation and excitement of the event...it's for the entire student body not just a segment. You're not invited on the basis of membership in a special club or group, but on the fact that you are part of the family!

BANQUETS. Three major semi-formal banquets during the year give everyone a chance to dress up and enjoy a specially decorated banquet room complete with good food, entertainment, and time shared together.

BEAUTIFUL DAY. One bright sunny fall day and one fresh snowy winter day, the college President ends chapel by declaring it a "beautiful day." Classes are dismissed in lieu of ball games, picnics, snowball fights, or whatever else the weather dictates.

ADMISSIONS OFFICE

STUDENT COUNCIL. Leaders are developed in an active Student Council as they plan the year's activities and projects ranging from outings to the Detroit Zoo to raising funds for the Student Center.

A CAPPELLA CHORUS. If you like to sing and travel, you would be thrilled with membership in the chorus. Several weekend performances and two major tours highlight their year.

DRAMA. You may develop a talent you didn't realize you had in the MCC theatre program. Three major productions including a touring group provide experience in acting and stagecraft.

PUBLICATIONS. A monthly student newspaper, the NORTH STAR and the college yearbook, the TOTEMPOLE, provide opportunity for development in the areas of writing, layout design, photography, and small business organization.

SKI CLUB. Fresh Michigan snowfalls and nearby ski resorts are frequented by members of the ski club.

MISSION EMPHASIS. If you have a special desire to share the good news, you can receive training and be given experience in Mission Emphasis' active schedule of off-campus evangelistic campaigns.

HIS WORDSMEN. Those young men desiring to fill leadership or preaching roles in the church find practical experience and encouragement together in His Wordsmen.

W CLUB. Young ladies find service projects readily available to them through involvement in the Worthy Womens Club.

DEVOTIONALS. Weekly periods of Christian fellowship and worship take place throughout the week in the residence halls and regular Thursday night mixed devotionals.

INTERCOLLEGIATE SPORTS. A traditionally fine basketball squad often surprises larger schools with a Warrior victory and such recognition as the 1972 NCCAA National Scoring Championship. Although relatively new in the sport, the MCC Warriors recently captured the league baseball title. Those possessing exceptional individual skill often find Tennis or Cross Country as their sport.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS. If you possess a modest athletic ability or even a desire, you can participate in an active intramural program of softball, football, volleyball, basketball, tennis, badminton, checkers, and chess.

PEP SQUADS. Enthusiastic Cheerleaders, the Warrior Chief, and Pep Club combine with the Student Body to often outdo the opponents spectators in cheering volume and crowd size.
