Business Team Wins Invitational

Final judging of the inaugural Harding University Invitational Business Games was conducted Friday, November 18 on the Harding campus. Michigan Christian College placed first in the Industry III division.

Fifteen teams in three industries participated during the eight-week competition which began September 16, with five teams in each industry. Ten high schools and five junior colleges from nine states and Canada were represented.

During the two-month competition, each team made eight sets of decisions, representing a twoyear (eight quarters) period of time. Decisions included product marketing, unit producing, inventory financing and other decisions necessary for a normal business operation.

The Invitational Business Games relied on a specialized business game developed by Dr. David Burks, dean of the School of Business and director of the American Studies Program at

These computer-simulated games have proven effective in providing students with decision making experience and in allowing them to bridge the gap between textbook learning and real-world situations," said Burks.

The Invitational Business Games were directed by David Johnson, assistant professor of accounting, who said they would now become an annual event at Harding.

MCC Vice-President Bill Fowler served as the team's advisor throughout the preliminary competition. David Briggs, business instructor, traveled to Harding with the team.

Team members included Susan Ward of East Detroit, Michigan; Don Tate of Traverse City, Michigan; Paula Coleman of Noblesville, Indiana; Rob Losher of Troy, Michigan; and Trish Stephens of Rochester, Michigan.

"Reflections" will be the theme of the 1984 Celebration in Song set for April 6 and 7. A special matinee performance has been planned for Saturday afternoon in conjunction with High School Day. Host and hostesses for the annual musical extravaganza have already begun rehearsals. They include (left to right) Von Smith of Rochester, Michigan; Simone Hipkins of Joliet, Illinois; Angela

Irvin of Harvey, Illinois; Jim Belasco of Royal Oak, Michigan; and Mark Berard of Auburn Heights, Michigan.

$223,000 Pledged to Support MCC

Over $223,000 has been pledged to Michigan Christian College's Salary Sharing campaign as of December 1, 1983.

"It is exciting to see so many people willing to help," stated Rick Watson, coordinator of the fund-raising drive. "More money than ever before was pledged by mail. The Phone-a-Visit portion has generated over $133,000 so far. It has been an extremely successful campaign. I wish there was some way to adequately express my appreciation to everyone who has worked so hard to help raise this money for the college." A final campaign tally is not yet available as pledges are still being received toward the $250,000 goal. Also, gifts from companies which match their employees' contributions could raise the final count. (To find out if you work for a matching company, consult the list on Pages 4 and 5.)

The Salary Sharing campaign is a double-thrust effort, involving direct mail and telephone drives. The direct mail portion of the effort involves a "YES" response card being sent to the entire mailing list in early October. The telephone effort, known as the Phone-a-Visit phase, is a month long effort by volunteer callers to reach potential MCC supporters across the nation.

Five student volunteers raised a minimum of $1,000 each of five nights during the PAV campaign. These outstanding callers were Mark Hammitt, Wyn Hudson, Tracy Martinez, Winnie Shopshear, and Jim Whitlow.

Thirty nine other student callers had at least one $1,000 night. These included Paula Coleman, Debbie Crewse, Pauline Cross, Robbie Davidson, Carol Denton, James Dotts, Lori Elliott, Diana Fiant, Lena Folmer, Lora Gilbert, Rick Greer, Jenny Haber-mel, Linda Hambrick, Cindy Harley, Edie Hinson, Brian Hoggatt, Lynn Howe, Chuck Ingram, Emmanuel Lewis, and Rita Lutes.

Shery Meder, Mitzi Merritt, Tracey Moore, Kelley Parker, Jill Paterson, Bryan Pollard, Steve Racklyft, Monica Sellers, Carla Simmons, Sharon Smotherman, Lana Stinnett, Sharon Stockard, Sue Taschner, Renee Thomas, Kim Thompson, Doreen Toner, Rosina Trupiano, Debbie Wallace, and Wilena Wallace also raised at least $1,000 in pledges.

Several friends of MCC also came to campus to assist with the PAV effort. Four of these, MCC Board Chairman J. Robert Utley, Board member Cal Seccombe, Coach Bill Shinsky, and alumnus Ron Losher, each attained at least $1,000 in pledges for one night.

"We certainly appreciate all who called. The students worked especially hard. It is great to see their enthusiasm and interest. It is very enjoyable working with these callers on behalf of MCC," commented President Milton B. Fletcher.

Bill Fowler Named Assistant Vice President for Finance at Abilene Christian University

William E. (Bill) Fowler, MCC Vice-President for Finance, has been named Assistant Vice President for Finance at Abilene Christian University effective January 1, 1984.

"Bill has been a great asset to the institution. He will be greatly missed," stated President Milton B. Fletcher. "I really hate to see Bill leave, but it is a great opportunity for him.'

A graduate of Harding University and Walsh College of Business, he is also a certified public accountant. Bill has been with MCC for six years. In addition to his administrative responsibilities, he has taught business and accounting courses and was responsible for the oversight of campus maintenance. He plans to complete his responsibilities with MCC by December 16. He and his wife, Carol, plan to move to Abilene by the end of the year.

"We leave MCC and this area with mixed emotions. We look forward to new opportunities at ACU, but are proud to have been associated with Michigan Christian and to see its growth during the past six years. It has been a privilege to work under the leadership of Milton Fletcher and to work with so many others dedicated to Christian education. We will miss the many people we have come to know better because of our work here, and we trust that God's richest blessings will be upon them and the work at Michigan Christian."

Message from the President

Dear Friends

It seems impossible that 1983 is almost history. By the time you read this we will probably be writing 1984 on letters, checks and other documents. Just a few years ago it seemed that we would forever be getting to the point of writing 1983 or 1984 and certainly never the year 2000. However, that is only 16 years away. And for each of us, the time of life we have left is exactly the amount of time remaining until "eternity" begins. That fact causes me to pause and reflect on just how brief and fragile life is. But, Christians have a unique way to look at this business of life. We are just preparing for another one that will be so much better.

As we approach the end of a year, I wanted to say thanks to all of you who have remembered Michigan Christian College in your prayers, your gifts, and your moral support. Without you it would be impossible to continue to develop a quality program. We at MCC feel so very fortunate in having a clientele so dedicated to the concept of Christian education.

Let me express apologies to those of you whose checks have been late in clearing your bank accounts and, therefore, your receipts late in getting to you recently. We have just undergone a change-over in the computer system in that we have converted from our former computer system to a new Wang VS-80. This change has brought about undue and unplanned delays in receipting and responding. From what I am told, this is not abnormal, but that does not make it less frustrating. Certainly, your receiving our thanks and your receipts somewhat late is no indication of our lack of appreciation for your generous contributions. I'm just saying that we regret the delay and requesting you to have patience with us.

The Salary Sharing Campaign is almost over. The original direct mail portion of the campaign generated commitments amounting to $88,641, while the Phone-a-Visit segment produced commitments amounting to $134,266. To date, the commitments have totaled $222,907 which is $27,093 short of the budgeted goal of $250,000. Therefore, we are getting out an end of the year mailing to those whom we were unable to reach during the phoning. We are hoping to see the total go over the top. It is such a vital part of our fund-raising budget.

We wish for you a very pleasant season and a healthy and successful 1984.

Very sincerely,

Milton B. Fletcher President

P.S. My wife, Gene, continues to suffer from cancer. She is fighting the battle with great courage and spirit. Please continue to remember her in your prayers as well as many others who fight this terrible disease. We appreciate all the prayers and thoughtful concerns over the past two years.

Bible School Workshops Serve Midwestern Churches

An on-going part of MCC's service to the church in the Midwest is the Bible School Workshop. Each year, approximately twelve of these workshops are conducted at various congregations throughout the MCC service area. Recently MCC staffed workshops at the Bristol Road congregation in Flint, Michigan; Southside congregation in Terre Haute, Indiana; Northwest Church of Christ in Detroit; Valparaiso Church of Christ in Valparaiso, Indiana; and North Park congregation in Rockford Illinois

Indiana; and North Park congregation in Rockford, Illinois.

Over 2,000 have attended at least one of these sessions which are designed to encourage and enlighten Bible school teachers. Jesse Clayton, Director of Development at MCC, oversees the work done at the workshops. He is assisted in teaching by several of the MCC staff. Paul and Margaret Southern teach at every workshop. Milton B. Fletcher, Loren Gieger, Len and Fawn Knight, Larry Jurney, Coy Roper, and Rick Watson also teach at various workshops throughout the year.

Several excellent Bible School teachers not employed by MCC also teach. Betty Hutchinson and Edie Huckaby from Toledo, Ohio; Charlotte Roper from Allen Park, Michigan; Andrea Clayton from Troy, Michigan; Helen Cole from Plymouth, Michigan; Glenn Adams for the Bristol Road congregation in Flint, Michigan; Mattie Mitchell, Susie Hargis, and Myra Chambers, all from the Vinewood congregation in Detroit; Peggy Powers and Gordon MacKinnon from Birmingham, Michigan; Chris Panky from Cleveland, Ohio; Hollis McKinley from Fort Wayne, Indiana; Warren and Darlene Howe and Pete Peters from Dayton, Ohio; Kent Smith from Lafayette, Indiana; Charlie Herndon from Rockford, Illinois; and Chuck Thyme from Naperville, Illinois share their expertise. "This workshop has been a real blessing to this congregation

"This workshop has been a real blessing to this congregation and to the church in this entire area," stated one Bible School teacher who attended a recent workshop. "We appreciate the work that MCC does in putting these workshops together."

January is Financial Aid Awareness Month

January, 1984 has been proclaimed Financial Aid Awareness Month by Michigan Governor James Blanchard. A state-wide media emphasis hopes to help students with interest in attending college realize that there are ways to achieve their goal.

Michigan students should apply early for financial aid to guarantee the best aid package. A limited amount of funds will be available to Michigan students who attend an in-state private college. Application for financial aid in January or February will be necessary to secure a portion of these funds for 1984-85 college expenses.

Although the time factor is not quite as urgent for non-Michigan residents, they, too, should apply in early 1984 for best results.

Financial aid application materials will be mailed in January to all high school seniors on the MCC mailing list. Financial aid and admissions staff members will be available to help families complete the aid application. Simply call Kent Hoggatt, Director of Financial Aid at (313) 651-5800 and ask for assistance.

Year-end Tax Letter Cannot be Sent

The changeover from MCC's old IBM to the new Wang VS-80 computer system is just a few steps from completion. However, the majority of all actual transfering of information has been completed. One of the problems caused by the change-over is the inability to send out the year-end tax letter to those who have donated money to MCC.

"We regret this inconvenience," stated Rick Watson, whose office handles the receipting of all gift monies. "Our donors are very special to us. We hope that this problem will not cause them any aggravation. If anyone needs information, they can call or write and we will be happy to get them whatever they need."

Dayton, Rockford Chicago and Nashville Host Fund Dinners

Fund raising dinners were recently conducted in four Midwestern cities on behalf of Michigan Christian College. Friends of MCC in Dayton, Ohio; Rockford, Illinois; Chicago, Illinois; and Nashville, Tennessee pledged their support to the institution.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Howe and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Foreman were the chairpersons of the committee responsible for planning the Dayton Annual Fund Dinner on October 22, 1983. One hundred and forty-four attended this fund raising event. The majority of those attending were members of the Collegiate Heights congregation. Over $2,900 was pledged during the dinner to help MCC.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Phillips coordinated plans for the Rockford, Illinois Annual Fund Dinner held November 4, 1983. Eighty-two supporters of Christian education attended and pledged over $1,200 to MCC's Annual Fund. Dr. John C. Stevens, Chancellor of Abilene Christian University, was the featured speaker that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cy Addams worked as chairpersons for the first Chicago Area Annual Fund Dinner on November 5, 1983. One hundred and ninety guests enjoyed a performance by MCC's Autumn. Dr. Stevens also addressed this audience, and MCC President Milton B. Fletcher presented a state of the college address. $5,810 was pledged.

One hundred and eightyseven people attended the first Nashville area Annual Fund Dinner. Dr. and Mrs. Jim Bill McInteer served as chairpersons for the November 19, 1983 fund raising drive. $3,805 has been pledged thus far to MCC.

Dinners in Abilene, Texas and Cincinnati, Ohio had been conducted earlier in the year. Plans are to conduct similar dinners again next year as well as fund raising dinners in Indianapolis, Indiana and Tucson, and Phoenix, Arizona.

Nine MCC Students Named to Who's Who

The 1984 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges will include the names of nine students from Michigan Christian College who have been selected as national outstanding campus leaders.

These students have been included because of their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success

Students named this year from Michigan Christian College are: Al Bugg, Mike Garrison, Kim Gentry, Clarissa Lovelady, Rita Lutes, Tracey Moore, Lisa Price, Susan Ward, and Pam Whitelaw.

Al Bugg is a sophomore from Troy, Michigan. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bugg, he is actively involved with the Bible Bowl program for young people sponsored by the Royal Oak, Michigan congregation. He is a member of the MCC basketball team and serves as a resident assistant in the Barbier dorm.

Mike Garrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garrison of Mt.

Pleasant, Michigan, is a computer science major. He is a member of Alpha Beta social club. Following graduation from MCC, Mike plans to attend Harding University.

Kim Gentry is a sophomore from Temperance, Michigan. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gentry. During her two years at MCC, she has attended the Lake Orion congregation and teaches Bible school. She is a member of the Women's Club and the A Cappella Chorus.

Clarissa Lovelady is a sophomore pre-nursing major. She and her husband, Keith, live in Rochester and attend the congregation

Rita Lutes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Lutes of Farmington Hills, Michigan. She is the vice-president of the Women's Club and executive secretary of the Student Body Association. She is also a resident assistant.

Tracey Moore is a sophomore computer science major from Elyria, Ohio. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Moore, she is a member of the Beta Gamma social club. Tracey plans to complete a Bachelors degree program at Abilene Christian University.

Lisa Price is a resident assistant, a member of Alpha Tau social club, and editor of this year's Totem Pole. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Price of Bradner, Ohio, she plans to continue majoring in social work at Harding University.

Susan Ward is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ward of Detroit. An accounting major, she served as chairperson for the MCC Business Team during competition at the Harding University Invitational. She is also Women's Club President, Student Body Association Treasurer, and a member of the Alpha Tau social

Pam Whitelaw is the dughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Whitelaw of Milan, Michigan. She is a member of the A Cappella Chorus, Autumn, Alpha Tau social club, and Women's Club. She plans to enter the Harding University nursing program next fall,

Lectureship Guests Find Marketplace Theme Helpful

Several well-known speakers from throughout the brotherhood delivered outstanding lessons during the 1983 Fall Bible Lecture-ship. "The Christian in the Marketplace" was the theme of the

Among the program's featured speakers were Dr. Joe Barnett, Larry Bridgesmith, James Bruce, Dr. Loren Gieger, Dr. Jim Bill McInteer, Judge Jack Pope, Dr. William J. (Bill) Teague, and Will

Also highlighting the Lectureship activitites was the presentation of the "Artist of the Year" and "Parents of the Year" awards. These winners were recognized during the annual Parents' and Friends' Luncheon.

Pamela Harrington was named "Artist of the Year." Her watercolor painting highlights the Campus Center building as seen from Avon Road. Reproductions of the work will be given to all members of the 1983 Century Club.

Dean and Thelma Hoggatt of LaGrange, Indiana were honored as Parents of the Year. They were recognized for having sent all five of their children to Michigan Christian College. Dean is an elder at the LaGrange congregation.

Their daughter, Kathy Long, taught school for several years. She is now a homemaker and the mother of two children. She and her husband, Ken, live in South Carolina. Kent is director of Financial Aid at Michigan Christian College and also teaches speech. He and his wife, Debi, also have two children. Another daughter, Lesly Brock, currently works at a day care center. She and her husband, Chad, live in Angola, Indiana, and he serves as minister of the congregation there. Two other children, Jean and Brian, are currently enrolled at Michigan Christian College.

Silver Anniversary Fall Festival Generates $26,000

More than $26,000 was raised for Michigan Christian College as a result of Fall Festival efforts by the Associates. Over $14,000 of that amount was collected as Queen's votes.

Ceremonies crowning this vear's queen, Lydia Talley, highlighted the day's activities. She is one of the original Associates, a member of the Northeast Church of Christ in Detroit, and was a public school teacher for fifteen Several past festival queens and former Associates' presidents were on campus to help MCC and the Associates celebrate their silver anniversaries. The theme of this year's festival was "The Associates - the Silver Lining of Michigan Christian College.

One of the most exciting activities of the day was the auctioning of a handmade Cathedral quilt. Mrs. Viva Blackburn had worked for two years to complete the quilt. Associates members contributed remnants of fabric cut into small squares to create the quilt. The pieces of fabric were individually trimmed for a perfect fit, hand stitched into muslin squares, and finally joined together to make the queen-size quilt. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Utley purchased the heirloom at auction for $1,000.

Hank Woodmore Takes All Tournament Honors

MCC Warrior's basketball guard Hank Woodmore received all-tournament team honors at the Junior College Invitational Tourney at Harding University December 2-3. Hank has been averaging nineteen points per game so far this season.

MCC lost to Southwestern Christian College 59-62 in the opening game of the tourney. Coach Garth Pleasant commented that the team played

MCC Hosts Student Services Conference

Student Services Deans representing eight Christian colleges gathered on campus November 3-4 for the Student Personnel Services Conference. Dr. Leonard Knight, MCC Dean of Students, hosted the group. Discussions during the conference dealt with such issues as extra-curricular activities, discipline, legal issues, retention and student personnel staff and housing.

The next Student Personnel Services conference will be hosted by Harding University.

very well and had a good opportunity to beat SWCC, but couldn't hold on to the lead.

The Warriors went on to bury Ohio Valley College in the consolation round 100-72.

Tourney play brought the team's season record to 4 wins and 2 losses. Marvin Mathis, Noel Roberts, and Ricardo Simpson have been averaging 14, 12, and 10 points respectively per game in the Warrior attacks. Ricardo Simpson is also leading in rebounds.

Dr. Saunders Addresses Presidents' Conference

"The President's Role in Institutional Management" was the theme of the 1983 Christian College President's Conference. Chief executive officers of thirteen sister institutions gathered at Michigan Christian College . November 14-15 for the annual meeting.

Following Monday evening's dinner, Dr. Landon Saunders presented "The President as a Servant Leader." Dr. Saunders is well known for his work in Christian media, particularly with the Hearbeat program.

At a Glance

A 5-9 record summed up the Fall 1983 Warrior baseball season. The season consisted of seven doubleheaders.

Coach Bill Shinsky assigned pitching duties to team members Chuck Baril, Lee Thomas, and Mel Long. Sophomores on the squad included Leland Gieger, Jim Watson, and Randy Bullock. A large number of freshman team members, including Jim Pobuda, Mike Thomas, Mike Zanoli, Troy Bryant, and Mark Hammitt, indicated good prospects for next year's season.

Presidents of each campus club and organization have formed an Inter Club Council. The ICC meets on a monthly basis to discuss ideas and ways of promoting club involvement.

Each club is in the process of writing a constitution which will also establish club mottos, colors, and by-laws.

Mario Gonzales, a sophomore from Lincoln Park, Michigan, is president of the ICC and Dean of Students, Len Knight, serves as their advisor.

Experienced officers will lead the 1983-84 Student Body Association. Tony Russell of Detroit, Michigan is in his third year as SBA President. Leann Reas of Elkhart, Indiana is serving as Vice-President for the second year.

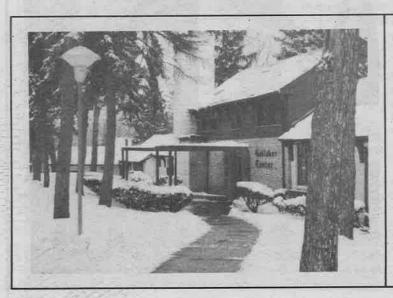

Other executive officers are Secretary Rita Lutes of Farmington Hills, Michigan, and Treasurer Susan Ward of East Detroit, Michigan.

Sophomore class officers include President Bryan Pollard, Vice-President Kelly Moore, Secretary Theresa Wilder, and Treasurer Jeff Hunt.

Jim Calkin has been elected President of the freshman class. Kyle Wheeler will serve as Vice-President along with Secretary Tyria Chattard and Treasurer Paula Coleman. Remodeling continues on the former campus gatehouse to create a home economics lab known as the Homemaking House. Students are already using the kitchen area of the facility, and the sewing area is scheduled for completion by year's end.

Six new employees were added to the MCC staff at the opening of the school year.

Cindi Aldrich and Mark Reminder will be assisting with campus maintenance. Mark Briggs has been hired to be in charge of data processing. Karen Owen will be working as a secretary in the Admissions and Development Offices. Cliff Plummer has been added to the Admissions Office recruiting staff. He will concentrate in the Illinois area. Diane Wright has joined the Business Office staff and will assist with the accounting responsibilities.
