in choosing a college.
Agree? Well . . .*

MICHIGAN CHRISTIAN COLLEGE has a home
that's hard to beat!

ROCHESTER

ROCHESTER . . . the northern-most suburb of Detroit . . . a thriving community of 7,000 . . . famous for its unique shops and cider mills . . . home of the internationally acclaimed Meadow Brook Theatre and Music Festival . . . a peaceful, small town atmosphere with the luxuries of the suburbs . . . two new enclosed shopping malls, four shopping centers, five indoor theaters, and over twenty-five restaurants . . . within seventeen miles of eight more shopping malls and over fifty more theaters . . . for obvious reasons, one of the fastest growing communities in the country . . . and MCC enjoys it all!

METROPOLITAN DETROIT . . . with the nation's fifth largest city as its center . . . offers world famous Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum . . . the Institute of Arts or Fisher Theatre for the culturally inclined . . . Tigers baseball . . . Lions football in the new 80,000 seat Pontiac Stadium . . . even the Detroit Zoo . . . all far enough away to avoid big city problems, yet close enough for special occasions . . . great for the suburb of Rochester and even greater for the social and educational benefit of a college community . . . a very special community like Michigan Christian College.

YES!
