"At last! A bachelor's degree program that recognizes the needs of the full-time minister!"

---

The Bachelor of Religious Education degree has been beyond the reach of many dedicated professionals who have chosen full-time ministry rather than the classroom. Now, Michigan Christian College offers a versatile program which allows you to receive college credit for your life experience as well as for training received at schools of preaching. In addition, this program allows you to transfer college credits received from other sources toward the Bachelor of Religious Education degree at Michigan Christian College. Here are just a few of the features which make this degree plan just right for you:

- ◆ Residency requirements are low.
  - ◆ Only eighteen hours of the program must be taken through Michigan Christian College.
  - ◆ Only six of these eighteen hours require presence on the Michigan Christian College campus.
  - ◆ Special week-long seminars are scheduled to compress the six on-campus hours into a manageable time-frame.

- ◆ Up to sixty semester hours of credit can be obtained for training received at schools of preaching.
- ◆ Life experience can be translated into recognized college credit.
- ◆ Concentrations can be developed within the Bachelor of Religious Education degree to suit your individual history, interest, training, and experience.
- ◆ Up to fifty semester hours of credit earned from other accredited colleges and universities may be counted toward your degree at Michigan Christian College.
- ◆ Michigan Christian College will waive general education requirements (except for English proficiency) for students transferring forty-eight hours of credit from another college or university.
- ◆ Previous vocational experience and training is used individually to determine placement and to select curriculum.
- ◆ Financial aid is available to help you meet your goals.

JUST FOR PROFESSIONALS !

- ◆ Program is limited to students age thirty and above or to persons with five or more years of full-time experience in the ministry.
