Criminal Justice at Michigan Christian College

Career Opportunities. If you are interested in a career in law enforcement, security, fire science, or private investigation, Michigan Christian College may have just the program for you! Michigan Christian College's unique criminal justice program offers you training for either immediate employment after two years of college, or for further studies at the bachelor's degree level.

Occupational Option. The Associate in Science degree from Michigan Christian College provides you with basic training for entry-level positions in the field of criminal justice. Since job qualifications vary, however, some agencies and states may require further certification prior to employment.

2+2 Program. If you plan to seek a bachelor's degree in criminal justice after completing your associate degree from Michigan Christian College, a "2+2" degree plan can be prepared especially for you. Under this unique arrangement, Michigan Christian College will design a course of study that blends the first two years of academic work at Michigan Christian College with the last two years at an institution of your choice. In addition,

Course Work. In addition to a strong core of liberal arts and Bible courses, the Criminal Justice Program features eleven specialized courses.

Introduction to Criminal Justice
Criminal Law and Procedure
Police Processes and Operations
Police Communications
Juvenile Methods
Criminology
Loss Prevention
Criminal Investigation
Emergency Control of Deviant Behavior
Firearms Training
Field Internship

Michigan Christian College can provide a transfer guarantee with your "2+2" degree plan, if you declare your transfer institution, degree, and major upon enrollment.

Program Coordinators. Dr. John Todd, professor of political science, is the on-campus coordinator for the Criminal Justice Program. Dr. Todd also teaches selected law courses to criminal justice students. Dr. Wayne Francisco, a veteran law enforcement agent and retired college professor, directs and teaches courses in the program. Dr. Francisco has written extensively on law, drug abuse, and crisis intervention. Currently, he serves as national vice-president of the American Federation of Police, faculty mentor of Columbia Pacific University, and dean of the American Police Academy. He regularly conducts seminars throughout northern Michigan and Canada.
