

Beyond Nature

First Impressions

When visiting the campus of Michigan Christian College, most students notice the towering pines, the scenic lakes, or the colorful fall leaves. After enrolling, they often note the beautiful campus setting as one of the main factors that attracted them to the college.

Lasting Impressions

After graduation, former students recall the beautiful campus, but they remember much more. They remember the personal, faith-building atmosphere. They value the solid preparation that led to their careers. They cherish their involvement in campus activities and talk about the great suburban setting that they enjoyed as students.

Beyond Nature

Even though the trees and the lake make an unusually beautiful campus, the real Michigan Christian College is beyond nature!

Michigan
Christian College

Careers

Solid academics!

Built upon a strong liberal arts tradition, the academic program of Michigan Christian College is designed to provide you with the knowledge, skills, and experiences needed for a solid career foundation.

Successful alumni in countless professions and graduate programs attest to quality preparation.

Set on a major?

Many students begin college without a definite major or career path. Many change their minds. To help you make wise choices, a Career Center offers testing and counseling to assist you with important decisions.

Any Internships?

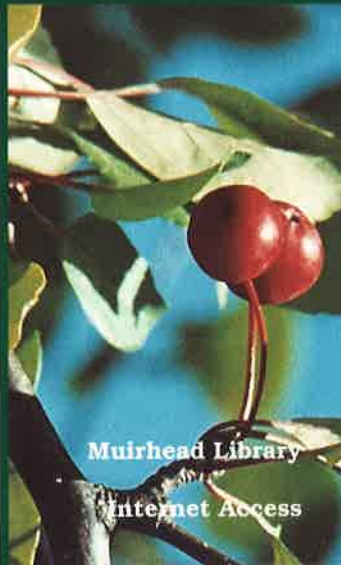

On-the-job experience enhances even the best classroom experience. Most bachelor's programs at Michigan Christian College include an internship.

How About Jobs?

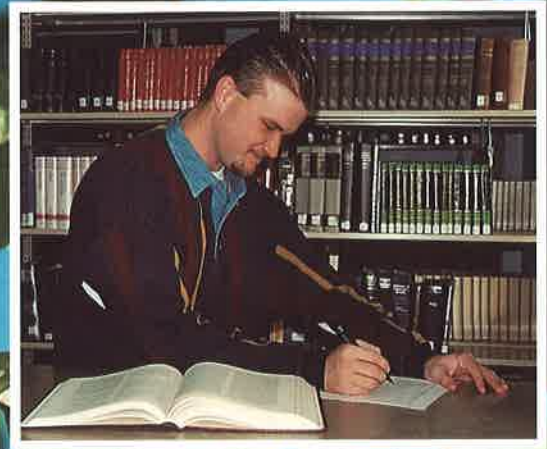

Successful internships and job fairs often develop into employment for Michigan Christian College students. Many have jobs waiting for them upon graduation!

"The academic and spiritual atmosphere of Michigan Christian College contributed to every facet of my life and career."

John Whitwell, '62
Director of Bands
Michigan State University

Muirhead Library
Internet Access

Marketing Internship
Anatomy Lab

Personal

Residence Hall Life

Individual
Attention

Worship

Is it friendly?

Although most students entering Michigan Christian College do not know one another upon arrival, that changes quickly. The small college setting allows you to make some of your best friends in life in a short time. The campus community becomes an extended family.

Who teaches?

Both in and out of the classroom, you are taught by professors and instructors with quality academic preparation, a strong value system, and a positive life-style. They know you by name and take a personal interest in your success.

What about faith?

From campus activities to the classroom, Michigan Christian College strives to provide a faith-building atmosphere. You are encouraged to develop a strong personal faith through positive relationships with others and a knowledge of God and His word.

"Michigan Christian College provided me with a more personal atmosphere for learning. Faculty members were always available and were willing to go the extra mile to help you."

Dan Isenberg, '82
Detroit Pistons Sales

Involvement

Warriors Soccer

A Cappella Chorus

Celebration
in Song

Something to do?

Student government, music ensembles, athletic teams, dramatic groups, social clubs, service organizations, and social activities for the entire college community keep you busy at Michigan Christian College. Enjoy yourself and extend your learning experiences outside of the classroom.

How about quality?

Compete with the big guys! Several teams from Michigan Christian College participate in national tournaments on a regular basis. The basketball team competes successfully with NAIA and NCAA universities. By invitation, the A Cappella Chorus performs regularly with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Who leads?

You might! Leaders are developed on the campus of Michigan Christian College. Life-changing self confidence and practical experience is developed by participation in extracurricular activities. Don't miss your chance to become involved in an active college community.

"Touring with the Michigan Christian College A Cappella Chorus was the single greatest reward I received during my college days! Because of this influence, I made music my life's ambition."

William Hensley, '67
Hensley Talent Agency

Suburban

Pistons at the Palace

Chrysler World Headquarters

Lakeside Mall

Rochester Hills
Public Library

Bored?

Catch a movie in one of Rochester Hills' many theaters, a concert at the Palace, or a professional stage production at Meadowbrook or the Fox.

Enjoy sports?

Within minutes of the campus, watch the Lions, Pistons, Tigers, or other professional teams.

Like shopping?

Shop 'til you drop in one of many shopping centers in Rochester Hills or one of the huge regional malls.

Need a job?

With an employment growth rate nearly three times the national average, Oakland County ranks in the top 1% nationally for income levels. Benefit from exceptional opportunities for part-time jobs, internships, and eventual career placement.

Looking for a book?

Take advantage of additional resources in the Rochester Hills Public Library or the Oakland University Library.

"I loved living in Rochester Hills. We always had things to do. And my internship at General Motors turned into my first full-time job!"

Natalie Atkisson, '95
General Motors Corporation

Join Us at Michigan Christian College!

College Type. Independent, four-year, liberal-arts, Christian college. Founded in 1959.

Mission. To help students develop academically, socially, and spiritually in order for them to achieve their potential, to possess a meaningful faith, and to serve God and others in their occupation, family, church, and community.

Affiliation. Students from many religious faiths and backgrounds. Affiliated with the Churches of Christ.

Location. Rochester Hills, a popular suburban community of over 61,000.

Campus. Major buildings situated around two scenic lakes on an 81 acre campus.

Accreditation. Accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

Bachelor's Degree Programs. Management major (B.B.A.) with specializations in business studies, childcare administration, marketing, pre-law, and vocational ministry. Human services major (B.S.) with specializations in counseling, criminal justice, early childhood education, psychology, and social work. Christian services major (B.R.E.) with specializations in biblical studies, Christian ministry, Christian studies, and youth and family ministry. Cooperative programs with neighboring colleges in elementary and secondary education and numerous technical fields.

Associate Degree Programs. Associate of Arts and Associate of Science degrees. Unlimited number of 2+2 majors available with unique transfer guarantees.

Library. Over 69,000 volumes, including microforms. 299 periodical subscriptions. 3 CD-ROM information databases and internet access.

Computer Access. Networked computers and laser printers. Internet access in the student computer lab. Lab accessible by modem from the residence halls.

Student Body. Approximately 400 students from 18 states and 6 countries. About 70% reside on campus.

Student Organizations and Activities. Student government, social and service clubs, mission campaigns, departmental organizations, Celebration in Song, theatre, and intramural sports.

Performing Groups. A Cappella Chorus, Autumn (contemporary gospel), Spectrum (contemporary pop), and Company (Christian drama).

Intercollegiate Sports. Member of the National Small College Athletic Association. Basketball, soccer, baseball, cross country, and track for men. Basketball, soccer, volleyball, cross country, and track for women. National titles in basketball, soccer, and cross country.

Admission. Regular admission for freshmen requires a minimum grade average of 2.25 or GED score of 50, and a minimum ACT composite of 18 or minimum SAT total of 800. Regular admission for transfers requires a college grade average of 2.00.

Financial Aid. Variety of federal, state, and institutional aid programs. Scholarships, grants, loans, and campus work programs. Normally about 90% receive financial aid. Aid eligibility determined by campus financial aid office based upon submission of Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Michigan Christian College
800 West Avon Road
Rochester Hills, MI 48307

Toll-free: 1-800-521-6010

E-Mail: admissions@michristian.edu

Photo Credits: Pistons at the Palace, Einstein Photo; Chrysler World Headquarters, courtesy of Chrysler Corporation; Lakeside Mall, courtesy of Lakeside Shopping Center; Rochester Hills Public Library, Gary Quesada, Balhazar Korab, Ltd.