

ROCHESTER
—COLLEGE—

Q: looking for a great place?

A: look no further

Rochester College is ideally located on a beautiful, quiet campus in Rochester Hills, Michigan, a thriving community in the metropolitan Detroit area where students can enjoy the best of suburban life with unlimited opportunities just minutes away. Things to do can be found across a wide spectrum of interests, from sports and athletic activities to shopping and eating, movies, concerts, theatres, and museums. And that is just the beginning.

Detroit boasts five professional sports teams: MLB's Tigers, NFL's Lions, NHL's Red Wings, WNBA Shock, and the 2004 World Champion Pistons. There are also numerous locations for athletic activity, including fitness centers, tennis courts, bike trails, golf and mini-golf courses, parks, and lakes.

For shopping and eating, there are six nearby malls, several strip malls, discount stores, book stores, grocery stores, and specialty shops, plus every type of restaurant you could ever hope to find (and most are easily accessible to students without cars). Seasonal events include cider mills, farmers' markets, parades, boating, skiing, and more.

Movies, concerts, and Broadway shows can be found at many nearby venues, including three local movie theaters and dozens of concert halls and upscale theatres. Detroit's cultural offerings include several museums that showcase a wide variety of subjects and timelines and often feature special exhibits. Trust us—rain or shine, at Rochester College you will never be left wondering what to do on a Saturday afternoon!
