CAPT. CHESLEY B. "SULLY" SULLENBERGER, III

Chesley B. "Sully" Sullenberger, III has dedicated his life to the pursuit of safety. Best known for serving as captain during the "Miracle on the Hudson," Sullenberger also is an aviation safety expert and accident investigator, serves as the CBS News Aviation and Safety Expert, and is founder and CEO of Safety Reliability Methods, Inc.

Born and raised in Denison, Texas, Sullenberger pursued his childhood love of aviation at the U.S. Air Force Academy, where he received the Outstanding Cadet in Airmanship Award. Upon graduation, Sullenberger served as a fighter pilot for the U.S. Air Force from 1975-1980. He advanced to become a flight leader and a training officer, attaining the rank of captain. After his military service, Sullenberger served as an airline pilot with Pacific Southwest Airlines, later acquired by US Airways, until his retirement in March 2010.

After logging more than 20,000 hours of flight time, Sullenberger became internationally renowned on

Jan. 15, 2009 when he and his crew safely guided US Airways Flight 1549 to an emergency water landing in New York City's frigid Hudson River. Sullenberger and his crew received international acclaim for their actions that day, including the passage of a Congressional resolution recognizing their bravery. Sullenberger was ranked second in TIME's "Top 100 Most Influential Heroes and Icons of 2009" and was awarded the French Legion of Honour. Clint Eastwood is currently directing the biopic of Sullenberger's life with Tom Hanks cast as Sullenberger.

Sullenberger is The New York Times best-selling author of "Highest Duty: My Search for What Really Matters." He also wrote "Making a Difference: Stories of Vision and Courage from America's Leaders." He has earned two master's degrees and also has an honorary doctorate from Purdue University. Sullenberger, his wife Lorrie, and their two daughters reside in the San Francisco Bay Area.

After years of plans, hopes and dreams, ground is broken on the Garth Pleasant Arena.

Excitement about this arena is building. Students wait with anticipation knowing next February Rochester College will have a stronger collegiate atmosphere.

The good news is a challenge gift of $400,000 is in place to match $1 for $1. We are hoping and praying our alumni and friends will help us raise the final $400,000 by August 2016.

A pledge card is enclosed for your convenience.
