IHDC Workshops

Overall Goal:
> Collectively, the workshops will provide a basic working knowledge of digitization project management. [structure -- learning skills in the sequence required]

Audience:
> Library staff involved in managing a digitization project

Assumptions:
> No prior experience with digitization

Copyright Issues and Procedures for Digital Initiatives
February 20th (Wednesday)
> Oakland Community College-Southfield Campus
> 8:30-9:00 am. Coffee/Registration
> 9-noon Workshop

Presenter: Michael Seadle, Copyright Librarian – Digital Sources Center, Michigan State University

Digital Project Planning
March 13th (Wednesday)
> Wayne State University – Adamany Undergraduate Library
> (parking passes sent to pre-registrants)
> 1 p.m. – 4.p.m.

Presenter: Ruth Jones, Digital Projects Coordinator- Digital Sources Center Michigan State University http://www.lib.msu.edu/jonesr/vita.htm

Introduction to Digitization – Images and OCR
Date: TBA
> Graphic Sciences - 4208 Normandy Court -Royal Oak, MI 48073
> A two hour tour (given in two sessions) of one of the largest full service document management companies in the Midwest. Followed by instructional lab sessions.

Introduction to metadata and DALNET standards for digital projects
Date TBA
Place: TBA
Presenters: Judith Aronheim, Metadata Specialist- University of Michigan
> Metadata DALNET Taskforce
> http://www~personal.umich.edu/~jaheim/resume.html

A full day workshop related to the development of descriptive metadata and review of the specifications for metadata components.