

Student life

Student Life is a committee of students, staff, faculty, and deans, dedicated to maintaining OCC's focus on student life. The committee sponsors programs and activities outside of the classroom designed to facilitate student development in the following areas.

Intellectual Development programs, activities, and events provide an opportunity to:

- Share a variety of opinions, and viewpoints with other students.
- Explore a variety of intellectual interests.
- Nurture your critical thinking skills
- Participate in issue forums

Moral/Ethical/Global/Diversity Development programs, activities, and events provide an opportunity to:

- Examine values
- Recognize the importance of diversity
- Analyze the interconnectedness of global and local concerns

Self/Personal Development programs, activities, and events provide an opportunity to:

- Find clarity, purpose, and satisfaction in your life
- Create personal goals
- Create a development plan to help you reach those goals
- Monitor, and adjust your goals

Interpersonal/Social Development programs, activities, and events provide an opportunity to:

- Exemplify leadership skills
- Plan events

- Become involved in social, recreational or honor clubs
- Engage in community service
- Be an effective team member
- Participate in social events (Ice Skating, Bowling, Intramural Sports, Movie nights)

Career Development programs, activities, and events provide an opportunity to:

- Create a career plan
- Learn job search strategies that will help you find a job
- Access resources for occupational knowledge
- Participate in career experiences that align with career goals
- Network, and interact with the job marketplace
- Join appropriate professional clubs, organizations and associations
- Utilize the Career Center, and Job Placement Center
- Partake in career workshops

We also sponsor Student Clubs, and a speaker series. Each campus also has its own Campus Committee. See your campus chair for more information.

Hi Nancy;

Sorry I missed your calls. I have been having some family problems and missed our phone conference. The college-wide student life committee wanted to develop a survey to evaluate the various programs that we will be presenting through out the year. The goal is to develop a simple document that would collect useful information that would help us with future planning.

Poetry enthusiasts! You must attend! Three poets-David James, Matthew Sweeney, and Thomas Lynch-will take the stage and read poems that will make you laugh, cry, cringe, squirm, and see the world through new and insightful eyes. Dr. James is our very own English professor and his poetry is fantastic, but even he admits he is flattered to be in the company of two such world renowned poets. Matthew Sweeney is a very widely published and highly acclaimed poet with a very Irish twinkle. He said: "My friend Thomas Lynch in America is a poet and an undertaker and he has a jingle that goes like this ' Before it is a written and read thing, it is a heard and a said thing' and I like that." Tom Lynch, of course is our very own, world renowned Milford, MI resident who will be rounding out this evening of world-class poetry.

"Campaign 2004:
What will happen?"

Tue., 10/19/04 7:30 pm
Smith Theatre free

This is a must see event! The Griffin Forum from Central Michigan University will be co-hosted this year by Oakland Community College. For the past four years, CMU has hosted public policy forums under the leadership of the Robert and Marjorie Griffin Endowed Chair in American Government. The endowed chair position is currently held by Bill Ballenger, editor and publisher of Inside Michigan Politics and former state senator and state representative. Moderated by Tim Skubick. Topics of the fall Griffin forum will be the 2004 presidential election, as well as other important local and state elections. Panelists will be selected by Bill Ballenger, and, given the intense interest the current political campaigns are generating, we anticipate a very lively and informative evening. The forum will be broadcast to other campus locations to be announced.

Performing Arts Department
Adults $8.00
Seniors and Students $5.00

Tickets are available at the Orchard Ridge
Bookstore and at the door.

For information call 248.522.3636

It takes a special skill to translate the oddball
sensibility of Gary Larson's "The Far Side" cartoons into live performance, but that's exactly the feel of David Ives' "All in the Timing." This lively and clever series of playlets is at once enchanting and perplexing, incisively intelligent
and side-splittingly funny. Time Magazine
declared it "Theatre that aerobicizes the brain
and tickles the heart."

Piano Recital -
Dr. John Ellis of UM

Fri., 9/17/04 7:30 pm

Free Admission

Smith Theatre

Dr. John Ellis is one of the premier piano performance artists and teachers at the University of Michigan. At the invitation of Dr. José García-León, our own music professor, he has graciously offered to perform a recital here at our campus, including the famous "Années de pèlerinage: Deuxième année - Italie (Years of Pilgrimage: Second Year - Italy) and Deuxième année: Supplement (Second Year: Supplement) Venezia e Napoli (Venice and Naples) by Franz Liszt. The Italian Year is Liszt's meditation upon his time spent in Italy absorbing its art, literature and music. Prof. Ellis will introduce the pieces before playing them.

"Poetry Trifecta"

Thurs., 10/14/04 7:00 pm
Smith Theatre free

Poetry enthusiasts! You must attend! Three poets-David James, Matthew Sweeney, and Thomas Lynch-will take the stage and read poems that will make you laugh, cry, cringe, squirm, and see the world through new and insightful eyes. Dr. James is our very own English professor and his poetry is fantastic, but even he admits he is flattered to be in the company of two such world renowned poets. Matthew Sweeney is a very widely published and highly acclaimed poet with a very Irish twinkle. He said: "My friend Thomas Lynch in America is a poet and an undertaker and he has a jingle that goes like this ' Before it is a written and read thing, it is a heard and a said thing' and I like that." Tom Lynch, of course is our very own, world renowned Milford, MI resident who will be rounding out this evening of world-class poetry.

What will happen?"

Tue., 10/19/04 7:30 pm
Smith Theatre free

This is a must see event! The Griffin Forum from Central Michigan University will be co-hosted this year by Oakland Community College. For the past four years, CMU has hosted public policy forums under the leadership of the Robert and Marjorie Griffin Endowed Chair in American Government. The endowed chair position is currently held by Bill Ballenger, editor and publisher of Inside Michigan Politics and former state senator and state representative. Moderated by Tim Skubick. Topics of the fall Griffin forum will be the 2004 presidential election, as well as other important local and state elections. Panelists will be selected by Bill Ballenger, and, given the intense interest the current political campaigns are generating, we anticipate a very lively and informative evening. The forum will be broadcast to other campus locations to be announced.

It takes a special skill to translate the oddball
sensitivity of Gary Larson's "The Far Side"
cartoons into live performance, but that's exactly
the feel of David Ives' "All in the Timing." This lively and clever series of playlets is at once
enchanting and perplexing, incisively intelligent
and side-splittingly funny. Time Magazine
declared it "Theatre that aerobicizes the brain
and tickles the heart."

García-León Recital

Sat., 11/20/04 7:00 pm

Smith Theatre

Our new music professor and world-renowned pianist, Dr. José García-León will perform a recital of some of the most loved piano pieces in the classical repertoire; the "Dante Sonata" by Franz Liszt, as well as Chopin works such as Ballade No. 2, a couple of Waltzes, and Scherzo Number 3. The very dramatic Dante Sonata tells the story of a huge battle between Good and Evil - to save Beatrice. It is very dramatic, easy to follow and almost like watching a movie. Thanks to Dr. León OCC now offers a two-year Associate Degree in music.
